Front-End Web Developer

About Me

I initially right-clicked to save an image, but things would not go as planned. Out of curiosity, I clicked on 'Inspect Element' and that morphed into an eye opening discovery of web development and design. I use web development to express my creative side and hope to bring my knowledge and talent to your organization. Below you will find projects I have worked on that display my skills.

Skills

HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, Node.js, Express.js, MongoDB, PostgreSQL, Git
